In January, the NAV was down 1.8% versus the FTSE All Share (incl. dividends) which was down 3.2%.

The year began positively with small gains being posted in early January. Concerns over the Coronavirus outbreak then resulted in an overall market pullback in the 2nd half of the month to leave the Trust with a small negative performance at January 31st.

We are watching the spread and implications of the outbreak closely.

Individual share price moves of note included Vesuvius and Lloyds falling 13% and 9% respectively. The housebuilders were positive along with Frasers Group (Sports Direct) and Hornby.
